

56 HANNAY Street MORANBAH QLD

4  2  5

This beautiful brick lowset executive home truly stands out above any others in this price range. Surrounded by lush tropical gardens and manicured lawns, it offers excellent value for money and will excite either an owner-occupier or an investor. The owners have moved out and are ready to SELL. There has been a rental appraisal on this home of $750 per week.

It has a huge beautifully manicured yard which is privately fenced, and has a large double colourbond shed which is powered.

This home is far better than your average build too - it has been built by a reputable builder, is immaculately presented and has been designed to create space and modern living at its finest ... but without the astronomical price tag! Some of the many features of this lovely home include:
